

MAJOR WILLIAMS DIES; WORKED UNTIL END

Special Agent for Treasury for Twenty-eight Years.
Veteran of War.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Major William H. Williams, special agent of the United States Treasury for twenty-eight years, is dead. He was seventy-three years old.

For fifteen years prior to coming to Chicago, Major Williams was at the head of the United States Treasury special agency in Europe, maintaining an office in Paris. Soon after coming to Chicago, three years ago, he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, from which he never fully recovered, although keeping up his work during this time.

During the civil war he was major of the Forty-second Ohio, the regiment of which James A. Garfield was colonel, and was at the head of the regiment during many battles.

The funeral will be held under the direction of the G. A. R., and will be at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Major Williams is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Charles R. Bradley, of St. Louis, and three sons—Carl S., of Philadelphia; Don R., of Rochester, N. Y.; and Clare G., of San Francisco, Cal.

The man killed when the automobile turned over at Robesonia, about twelve miles from here, was Henry L. Buckley, a reporter for the Press. Buckley, who was the courier bearing a letter of greeting from President Taft to President Chibrikoff, of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, was thrown into the middle of the road, fracturing his skull.

THEOSOPHICAL RANKS SPLIT INTO FACTIONS

Advanced Thinking Gets Severe Blow When "Yoga"
Cult Declare Hostilities—Application of Philosophy to Questions of Morality Figures in Controversy.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The "Yoga" cult and kindred branches of Oriental occultism may serve to split asunder theosophical ranks in America. Representatives of two factions, opposed to each other for three years and now on the point of declaring hostilities, content that theosophists of Chicago, as well as of the entire country, have come to the parting of the ways, and that the immediate future will see the birth of a new organization made up of seceding members of the old.

Charges and counter-charges flew thick and fast as a result of attacks made by old-line theosophists, headed by Mrs. Annie Besant, upon devotees of the new school of advanced thinking.

The matter of the application of Oriental philosophy and occultism to questions of morality—under which head "Yoga" poses as a branch of theosophy—is said to be the rock on which the ship of advanced thinking is now pivoted. Mrs. Besant and her forces—a majority here from the thriving town of Beach that unless assistance is sent there today, the place is doomed to destruction by fire.

The fire started from the explosion of a gasoline lighting device in a clothing store. The building was soon wrapped in flames, and the fire spread quickly to adjacent structures fanned by a strong wind. Devoid of adequate fire-fighting apparatus, the citizens formed a bucket brigade and did heroic service. Glendive was asked to send some sort of chemical extinguisher, but nothing could be done here.

At the latest reports, some of the best buildings in the town had been destroyed, and thousands of dollars' worth of damage done.

Beach is located on the Northern Pacific, about forty miles east of Glendive. It is almost directly on the Montana-North Dakota State line, and is the "metropolis" of the famous Golden Valley. It has a population of about 1,000.

ORDER OF ST. SAVA BROUGHT TO CAPITAL

Decorations Given to Minister
Knowles by Serbia's Ruler.

Decorations of a high order have been deposited at the State Department by Horace G. Knowles, until recently minister of the United States to Roumania, Serbia, and Bulgaria. The decorations are the star and cross of the first class of the order of St. Sava, and were bestowed on Minister Knowles by King Peter and the government of Serbia as an appreciation of the services rendered by him to the court and people of Serbia.

A special envoy from King Peter met Minister Knowles in Philadelphia a few days ago, and there delivered to him the messages and valuable tokens.

Mr. Knowles is now minister to Nicaragua, and the provision is to the effect that no representative of the United States Government may receive gifts from foreign rulers so long as he is in the Federal service except by special permission of Congress.

Pittsburg Turns Up Nose at Brew-

PITTSBURG, Sept. 19.—A. W. Mellon, the banker, who is reputed to be worth $30,000,000, and his wife have separated. While incompatibility is given as the cause of the separation, friends of the couple say that in reality Mrs. Mellon refuses to live in Pittsburg, where, it is said, she claims she has been snubbed socially since her marriage, in 1897.

Mrs. Mellon is the daughter of a Herford, England, brewer, and was a member of a party passing through California to New York, and stopped in Pittsburg to have a look at the steel mills. Mellon, who is heavily interested in oil and steel, met the young woman, volunteered to show her through the mills, and proposed to her.

Mellon is head of the Mellon National Bank, which represents H. C. Frick in Pennsylvania.

Montana Hamlet May Be Wiped Out Unless Aid

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 19.—After a spectacular burglary chase over roofs on three downtown buildings, John Schmidt, who was hurt in the chase, was captured. When he saw the policemen surrounding the building, Schmidt rushed to the roof. He had sawed through an automatic burglar alarm which gave the signal.

Detectives followed, and as they were about to seize him, Schmidt leaped to the roof of a four-story building at 170 Clark street, and, in alighting, both of his ankles and back were sprained. The detectives climbed up the fire escape and arrested Schmidt to the street. He was taken to the City Relief Hospital and thence to a cell in the Harrison street station.
